The Salary Steal a Radical Measure.

A Republican exchange says so, and who ever disputed it? No honest man ever did. And now comes the Adrian (Mich.) Press, a Republican paper, and in answer to the Jackson Citizen, a Radical paper of the extreme kind, about Democrats being responsible for the salary steal.

It has been the custom of Republican speakers and Republican papers to claim all the legislation that has occurred during the last ten or twelve years as the work of the Republican party, no matter whether it was supported or opposed by Democrats.

Blessings in Disguise.

Pestilence, fire, and financial revolution, says the Chicago Times, are daily anticipated with dread and all their effects are beneficial, within certain limitations.

The slaughter of Shreveport is known to be the effect of the rotten carcasses of cattle left in great numbers close to the bounds of the city.

The cholera of the past season has confined itself almost wholly to areas not provided with proper cleanliness, ventilation, and drainage.

Both against the violation of her known laws, it was an emphatic assurance, at Shreveport, that pure air must be breathed.

At Memphis it has taken the form of information that places like the "French" must not be tolerated in decent communities.

In Chicago the cholera has simply reiterated what we already knew, that people must drink pure water, and cleanse their dwellings from filth and dirt.

What applies to human health, and to the construction of cities, also applies to business.

Sinking in Sight of Shore.

[From the New York Observer.] Last Monday week, in a driving gale, one of the largest steamers on our Northern lakes foundered within seven miles of a safe harbor.

The steamer, the Grand, was one of the largest and finest of the line, and was on her way to New York, when she was wrecked.

Dedication of the Grand Temple in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25th.—The ceremonies of the dedication of the Grand Temple here, said to be the largest temple in the world, were inaugurated to-night by a grand tour of the Grand Temple.

The ceremony was a grand affair, and was attended by a large number of people. The temple is a magnificent building, and is said to be the largest temple in the world.

The Yolo Democrat.

COUNTY AND TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND, CAL.
Friday, Oct. 10th, 1873.

JUDICIAL TICKET.

Election Wednesday, October 15th, 1873.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT.

SAMUEL BELL MCKEE.

Samuel Bell McKee.

Rally again, Democrats of Yolo County. On Wednesday next you will be called on to cast your votes for a Judge of the Supreme Court for the ensuing six years. No better man for that position can be found within the limits of this State than Sam. Bell McKee! An experience of many years in a judicial position second only to that of the Supreme Court itself, throws around him the light of respect. His eminent legal ability renders him worthy of assuming the mantle of the Murrys, the Baldwins and the Fields. His elevated character and spotless reputation as a man and a jurist give assurance that the Supreme Judicial emblem will be worn by him unsullied and unsoiled. His repeated election to judicial position by large majorities in a district opposed to him in politics, is the best guarantee of the estimation in which he is held by the community in which he lives. Be not misled by false lights, whether in the variegated garment of the Dolly Varden, or the alluring guise of the Salary-Grabbing Republican. You have a candidate of whom you, and all men—of whatever political proclivity—may well be proud. One who is honest, truthful, faithful, able—upon whom no breath of suspicion can rest—one who challenges the closest scrutiny into his past career as a man and an officer; one whose whole life has been and is open to inspection, and whose whole life has shown him to be a Democrat in the fullest, truest and most enlightened sense of that term. Why should we then turn aside and bow down before strange gods, or false lights? No, let the Democrats of Yolo County rally as in the days of yore, and in solid ranks roll up their wonted majority for Sam. Bell McKee on Wednesday next.

A REPUBLICAN BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—From bad management on the part of the Democrats of the Third District, Mr. Smith, whom we suppose to be a Republican, was elected Supervisor of that district on Saturday last, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Ed. Roberts, and afterwards, to prevent any possible future difficulty, was appointed under the Code by Judge Hutton. The election of Mr. Smith, as is well known, could not have been accomplished without Democratic votes. Still he was elected, and is now a member of the Board, making its political status three Republicans and two Democrats. Democrats only have themselves to blame for this result. The same may be said of Woodland precinct. With a clear Democratic majority of about twenty-five votes, still the Republican was elected over the Democratic candidate. Well, this is all right if the voters want it so. But we question if some of the Democrats who voted for the Republican candidates do not, if the truth were known, feel a little ashamed now that they can fully realize what they have accomplished. And yet the change may prove to be beneficial. The management of the county's affairs has been in the hands of the Democracy for a number of years. It may be more satisfactory to the people to have the Republicans run the machine awhile. If they can improve matters, well and good. It remains to be seen whether they will or not. In the tr. an time we will hope for the best.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—I propose that in the Judicial election of October 15th we comply strictly with the law requiring ticket peddlers and politicians to keep a clear space around the polls. This law forbids all persons from carrying in any kind of electioneering with in a hundred feet of the polls. At the September election it was neglected and violated, and prominent among those who were thus guilty of a misdemeanor I observed citizens whose names I shall suppress for the present. The provision of law thus violated has been praised repeatedly by every good citizen, as really the finest feature in the new Code and one that tends to promote the quiet deliberation which should characterize all elections. I propose that the hundred feet around the polls be kept clear, for the voters to pass to and from the polls free from the justings and interferences of either of the candidates or their backers. Being one of the many candidates for Justice of the Peace of this Township, and expecting to receive votes from some of our best citizens, I can promise, in advance, that none of my friends will be found violating this law.

NEW MUSIC.—We are again indebted to M. Gray, 223-25 Clay Street, San Francisco, for the following pieces of excellent new music: The Tempest, or an Interrupted Picnic, for the Piano, by Chas. Grobe, price $1.00; As the Light Fades from Mine Eyes, a pathetic ballad, words by Geo. Cooper, music by Harrison Millard; B-as and I are Out, song, composed by Fred. Eastbrook; Happy as a King, song, written and composed by Stephen Macetti, price 35 cents; Fireman's Song, words by Sam. Booth, music by Carl Hess, price 30 cents. Mr. Gray always keeps a large assortment of music and musical instruments on hand, which he sells at reasonable prices.

"DARED NOT!"—We should like to know why we dared not publish anything we pleased in this paper. The Mail says we "dared not" publish a certain article which we regard as bogus, in favor of the editor's worst brother-in-law. Will the said editor condescend to tell its readers what was to prevent our publishing it if we saw fit? Oh, Wag—was it a wag in more senses than one. But, candidly, for your own sake, we advise you to use a more truthful tongue, at least in regard to church matters. We shall not take pains to refute any of the untruthful statements in regard to others, "being ashamed," having "gone back," etc. The sin is on your own head, Wag. We feel sorry for you and pity your blindness.
